

(e) Supplementing Disclosures and Responses.

(A) in a timely manner if the party learns that in some material respect the disclosure or response is incomplete or incorrect.

included in the report and to information given during the expert's deposition.

(1) In General. A party who has made a disclosure under Rule 26(a) or who has responded to an interrogatory, request for production, or request for admission— must supplement or correct its disclosures or response:

and if the additional or corrective information has not otherwise been made known to the other parties by the time the party's pretrial disclosures under Rule 26(a)(3) are due.

during the discovery process or in writing; or (B) as ordered by the court.

(2) Expert Witness. For an expert whose report must be disclosed under Rule 26(a)(2)(B), the party's duty to supplement extends both to information

Any additions or changes to this information must be disclosed